

Chewy Hughie

By Oliver Fu
Class Two Grade Five

About the Author

This book's author is Jane Clarke. She's from the UK. She is an English writer of children's books and poetry.

Interesting Parts

There is a dog called Hughie. He likes chewing very much. Every time you can see he is chewing.

He chews up toys, bones, shoes, mobile phones.

He chews up his bed, towels, and toilet rolls.

He chews up books, DVDs, the carpets and the doors ...

One day, he chews a bubble gum for fun. And then he's inside a pink bubble. He chews the bubble. Finally, the bubble breaks. At last he doesn't chew.

Continue

Hughie gives up chewing. He starts to help his owner with housework. He can do many thing. Look, he is carrying the garbage into the bin. He can also help keeping the door. The house becomes clean and safe. Everyone likes him. He is very busy and happy everyday.

