About this book

About this story

The first day

This story is about a boy Flynn who was going to have his first day at school. And he was very nervous. But his parents told him that everyone will do something wrong on their first day.

The background is a stylized, abstract landscape. It features rolling hills in shades of teal and light green. Several trees are scattered throughout: some are tall and thin with white outlines, while others are more rounded and filled with colors like orange, blue, and purple. The sky is a soft gradient of pink and light blue.

My comments

My comments

In fact, the first time everyone will do something wrong, in learning, in the workplace, in interpersonal relationship.....

Everyone will feel uneasy when they do something for the first time because they have no experience in this field. Once they are nervous, they will be distracted and do something wrong. This is normal.
