Rustle, rustle! Who's coming through the forest?
It's a skunk, she's lonely.

Rustle, rustle! Skunk is looking for her friends.
She can't think where they can be.

Rustle, rustle! Skunk's running through the forest.
She finds her friends having a party. She joins them.

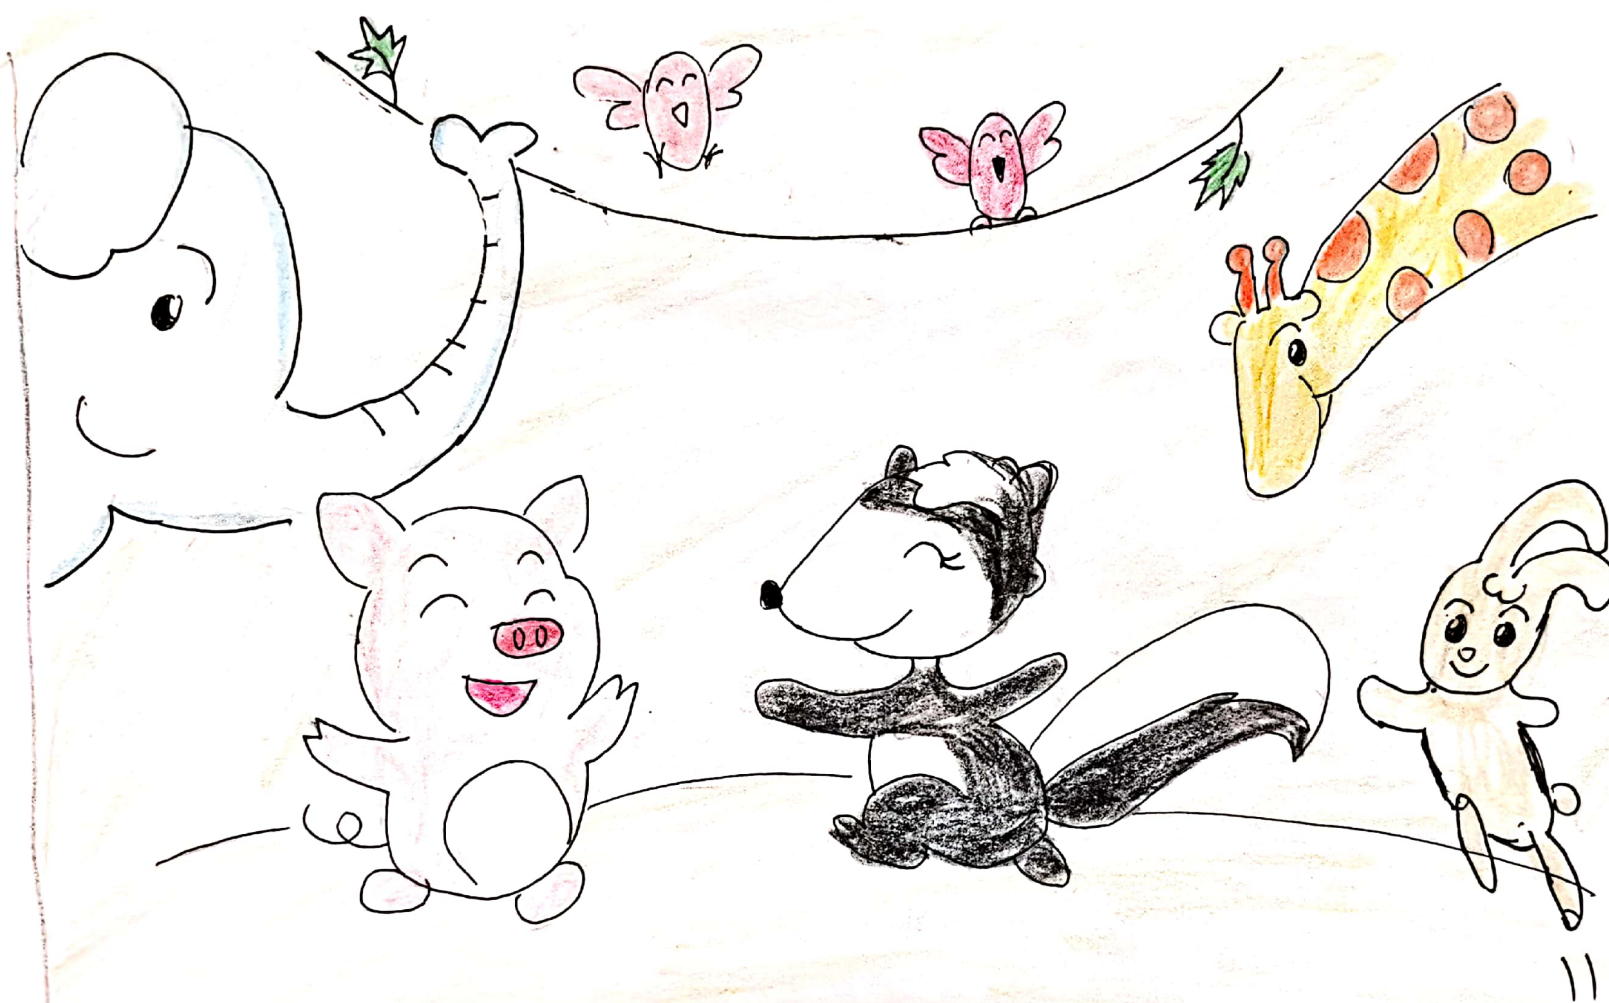

Suddenly the brown bear comes! Nobody likes the brown bear. He is ugly and likes bullying the animals.

The skunk shoot a smelly liquid at the brown bear. The bear passes out and never returns.

All the animals are grateful to the skunk to chase away
the brown bear.
