The Magic Pen

Written by Hiawyn Oram Illustrated by Nick Schon

Mr Big was big. His car was big, his house was big and his cat was big. One day, he bought a big new pen. It was magic and he got a big surprise.

What he wrote with the magic pen became alive. What will he write next?

If I were him, I would write "two cats", so that I have friends to play with.
I would write "flowers". I'll give them to my teachers.
I would write "snacks" to share with my classmates too.
If you were him, what would you want to write?
