

ARTHUR'S BACK-TO-SCHOOL SURPRISE

Written by Mark Blum
Illustrated by Mark Blum

Great Book Recommendation

What's the story about?

The story is talking about:

Arthur's mother is doing shopping with Arthur and D.W. They buy a binder, pen, crayons, shoes, coat, jacket, the same backpack and Arthur even buys underpants. But suddenly he finds that Francine sees his underpants. Arthur wants to disappear in that time. At the first day, D.W. and Arthur take others' backpack.

Some parts in the book

"I need a backpack," said Arthur. He picked a Bionic Bunny one. "I need one too," said D.W. "You don't need backpacks in nursery school," said Arthur. "I need one to take Mary Moo-Cow to school," she said. "You can't take that silly talking cow to school!" said Arthur. Mom sighed. "Okay, D.W., pick one," she said. D.W. picked one. Hey! said Arthur. "It's the same as mine. You can't do that!" "Why not? I like Bionic Bunny too," said D.W.

